

Educating Traumatized Children Summit

Free audio interviews of experts in Trauma-Sensitive Schools

May 1-5, 2017

Listen for Free

Sign up here: <http://attachu.org/trauma-sensitive-schools/2017summit/registration/>

Our 2017 Educating Traumatized Children Summit will feature 18 audio interviews (available as mp3 recordings) exploring the Trauma-Sensitive Schools movement and the latest in understanding the impact of trauma on learning. Teachers, therapists, administrators and parents will all find this series helpful in working with children of trauma.

Topics include:

- Re-Thinking Children's Behavior...the Seismic Shift
- The Importance of Top Administrators' Leadership in Creating Trauma Sensitive Schools
- The Heart of Early Learning
- Teachers: Self-Care isn't Selfish!
- The Compton Case's Impact on How Trauma is Addressed in Schools
- Trauma-Informed IEPs

Speakers include:

Dr. Ross Greene, creator of Collaborative & Proactive Solutions, author of Lost in School
Dr. Robert Hull, Ed.S., Trauma-informed school psychologist & educator
Dr. Susan Craig, author and career educator on teaching traumatized children
Heather Forbes, LCSW, Beyond Consequences Institute
Dr. Tim Purnell, Superintendent of Somerville School District
Melissa Sadin, MAT, M.Ed., Director of ATN's Creating Trauma-Sensitive Schools Program
Cheri Reaves, MA.Ed, Points of Access, LLC

Don't miss a single interview—buy the entire summit now...at deep discount.

Visit: www.creatingtraumasensitiveschools.org to learn more.

